CDT Privacy Tool Privacy Policy

This tool is governed my CDT's Web Site Privacy Policy [1] with the following additions:

- CDT will receive the complaints submitted with this tool and will submit them to the FTC on a monthly or quarterly basis. Within one month of when we submit the complaints, we will remove your name, email address, and any other contact information you provide from our database. We will never retain your name or contact information for longer than four months. As outlined in CDT's Web Site Privacy Policy, we will not use or share your name, email address, or any other contact information you provide.
- The FTC will receive and store your complaint. You can find the FTC's Privacy Policy here [2].
- If you share your complaint on Facebook, Twitter, or Digg, you will be taken off of CDT's Web site and on to the appropriate social networking site(s). This will not result in cookies being placed on your computer by our Web site, but may result in cookies being placed by the social networking site(s). None of the information you provide when you log in to the social networking site(s) is transmitted to or logged by CDT.
    - You can find Facebook's Privacy Policy here. [3]
    - You can find Twitter's Privacy Policy here. [4]
    - You can find Digg's Privacy Policy here. [5]
